

DEDICATE GREAT BATTLE MONUMENT

Notable Ceremony Takes Place on Field of the "Battle of the Nations."

NAPOLEON SUFFERED DEFEAT

Allies Won Sweeping Victory and Germany Won Independence 100 Years Ago.

Leipzig, Germany, October 18.—On the field of the "Battle of the Nations," where just 100 years ago the defeat of Napoleon by the Allies virtually resulted in the liberation of Germany, there was dedicated to-day one of the most imposing battle monuments in the world. The ceremonies were notable even in this year of historic anniversaries in Germany.

The sovereigns of Austria, Russia and Sweden, the nations that fought with Prussia to break the power of Napoleon in the Germanic Europe, sent their personal representatives, and all the federated princes and mayors of the German Empire were present. Their host is King Frederick August III, of Saxony, sixth in line of direct descent from that King Frederick August I, who fought with Napoleon against the Allies. Rhine troops deserted to the Allies on the decisive day, and who himself, vainly appealing for terms, was taken to Berlin and kept a virtual prisoner for three years.

The structure dedicated to-day by far the largest and highest in Europe. It stands just south of Leipzig, near Probstzsch, the village out of which the Allies drove Napoleon on October 18, 1813, the decisive day of the "Battle of the Nations." The fight had then raged for six days between the Austrians, Prussians, Russians and Swedes, on the one side, and the French, aided by the Saxons and Wurttembergers on the other, when the deciding day came. On the following day Napoleon abandoned the contest, leaving behind 75,000 of his army of 180,000 men, 15,000 of them dead. The Allies, at a loss of 51,000 from a total strength of about 200,000, had made Germany free from foreign domination to the banks of the Rhine. The idea of a monument on the battlefield was broached in the following year by Ernst Moritz Arndt, and found support from a number of prominent Germans and from a Russian diplomat. An organization was formed at Leipzig to keep alive the memory of the battle, but a king in captivity furnished grounds for abandoning the movement. The monument idea came up from time to time in the succeeding years, and in 1853, on the fiftieth an-

Colds are Caught in October

That Last All Winter

In most parts of the United States October is the pleasantest month of the whole year. And yet October has special liabilities for those who are subject to catching cold.

September is liable to be warm, and thin clothes are worn almost universally. When October begins the nights get colder, and the days also. Yet people will cling to their thin clothes. The negligee shirt without vest is so comfortable that the men do not like to give it up. Sleeveless underswear and peek-a-boo waists have given so much comfort during the hot months that the women lay them aside with great reluctance. So it is that thin clothes are carried over into the month of October, and a great many millions of people carry them a little too long. Frequently, catching cold is the result.

A cold acquired in October may last several months and do great damage. In spite, then, of the fact that October is a pleasant month, it is a month that presents special liabilities for catching cold. Of course, the best way to fortify one's self against cold is to avoid exposure; but people will not always do this, hence colds are the result.

To have a remedy handy to break up a cold is almost a household necessity. It has been at least thirty-five or forty years that Peruna has been a standard household remedy for coughs and colds.

It is generally sufficient to take a few doses at the first appearance of a cold. The experience of the people has been, if taken in the early stages of a cold Peruna is prompt in its action. The cold disappears very quickly. Those who object to liquid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.—Advertisement.

On the anniversary of the battle, the foundation stone of a monument was laid. Then came the wars of 1844, 1866 and 1870-71, and it remained for the German Patriots' Association, formed in Leipzig in 1894, to take the matter up and carry it to a successful conclusion. Four years later the necessary money had been raised, a design by Professor Bruno Schmitz had been accepted, and the first sod was turned for the work on October 18, 1898.

The monument stands on a hill about 100 feet above the level of the surrounding country. It is approached by a flight of 110 steps hewn in granite. On the base of the monument at the head of the stairs is an imposing relief, 180 feet long and 60 feet wide, the work of Christian Behrens. In the center of the relief is a heroic figure of Saint Michael. On each side of him Purities with torches hover over a battlefield strewn with dead. Above, in letters six feet high, is the motto of the anti-Napoleon warriors: "Gott Mit Uns" (God with us).

Of Gigantic Proportions. The monument rises to a height of nearly 300 feet. It is of reinforced concrete, faced with porphyry. On the ground level is a crypt, surrounded by eight gigantic stone masks, representing the faces of the great warriors. About the walls are four figures, two males and two females, seven times life size. They represent Courage, Sacrifice, Exaltation and Belief. The figures are the work of Professor Franz Metzner.

Around the outside of the domed cupola which surmounts the monument stand twelve gigantic warrior figures. The interiors of three of them are occupied by winding stairs and an elevator, giving access to a balcony near the top of the monument.

One striking thing is noted in connection with all the statues: not one represents any prince or sovereign. The uprising against Napoleon in 1813 was an uprising of the people, not of their rulers, and the new monument is a monument of the people. There is not a personal note about it.

Runners Bring Banners. One of the features of the day's exercises was the arrival of the last runners in a series of relays bearing banners and greetings from every quarter of the German Empire, and also from Washington and from Rio Janeiro. The banner from the United States passed through the hands of many thousands of athletes before it reached the King of Saxony. In all the relays a total of 12,000 runners were engaged.

The monument was dedicated by the King of Saxony.

Harrison—Meade. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Alexandria, Va., October 18.—Miss Virginia Meade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Statius Meade, of Braddock, Alexandria County, and Daniel Jennifer Harrison, also of that place, were married at 8 o'clock to-night at the home of the bride's parents, Braddock Heights. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Episcopal Church.

The bride was attended by Miss Emily Harrison, sister of the bridegroom, of Loch Raven, Md., as maid of honor. The best man was Henry Tucker Harrison, of Baltimore. The bride was given in marriage by her father, House decorations were autumn leaves and colored flowers.

Following the wedding the couple left for a Northern bridal trip. They will reside at Braddock upon their return.

Invitations Recalled. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Newport News, Va., October 18.—Because of the death of Christian Weaver, grandfather of the bride-to-be, the invitations to the wedding and reception of Miss Hazel Jane Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Weaver, of this city, and Dr. James Washington Reed, of Southwest Virginia, on the evening of October 23, at 8:30 o'clock, have been recalled.

Candidates of the Citizens' party are: clerk of the Corporation Court—James V. Trehy, incumbent; commissioner of the revenue, Edward J. Doran, incumbent; city treasurer, Gray Tunstall, incumbent; city collector, Edward J. Gorman, incumbent; Commonwealth's attorney, John G. Tilton, incumbent; city sergeant, John P. Lawler, incumbent; House of Delegates: W. S. Benson, incumbent. Candidates of the Citizens' party are: clerk of the Corporation Court, Richard W. Peatross, commissioner of the revenue, W. Frank Robertson; city treasurer, P. C. Stanworth; city collector, J. Bunyan Jones; Commonwealth's attorney, O. L. Shackelford; city sergeant, C. L. Hudgins; House of Delegates: S. A. Woodward and W. P. Cousins.

In addition to the above ticket, other candidates in the field are: city sergeant, M. T. Simmons, labor indorsement; for Commonwealth's attorney, Harry E. McCoy, independent; for House of Delegates, C. H. Perry, labor indorsement.

Laurence Waring, candidate for reelection as clerk of the City Circuit Court, is unopposed.

NORFOLK FIGHT IS HOTTEST STATE

Interest Centres There and in Bristol Contest for State Senate.

TWO TICKETS ARE IN FIELD

Incumbents or "Organization" Men Opposed by Citizens' Party.

Having no political contest of their own on at this time, local politicians are dividing their time between a discussion of the Norfolk situation and looking over the Senate and House contests in various sections. The most interesting contests now on are in the extreme sections of the State—the fight for the Senate from the First District, composed of Washington and Smyth Counties and the city of Bristol, and the contest between the "organization" and the "citizens' party" in Norfolk. It is from those two that bulletins on the night of November 4 will be most eagerly awaited. In Rockingham County the Democratic candidates for the House are expressing more confidence than they did a few weeks back. In Spotsylvania and other counties where Independents have offered for the House, authorized Democratic candidates are not greatly alarmed.

The Norfolk political situation is one that few outsiders pretend to understand. It is described by some as a mere case of ring against ring—the outs trying to get in. By others it is described as a political revolution—an effort to upset existing conditions, similar to that which was recently successful in Petersburg when the court clerk, the member of the House and others who had held office lost out to new men. The Petersburg revolution took place within the limits of a Democratic primary.

The fight in Norfolk is to be at the polls in a general election, where charges of irregularities that may follow will be disposed of by the courts, and not by a party committee.

The so-called "organization" or "in" faction, has put in the field the following ticket:

Clerk of Corporation Court—James V. Trehy, incumbent; commissioner of the revenue, Edward J. Doran, incumbent; city treasurer, Gray Tunstall, incumbent; city collector, Edward J. Gorman, incumbent; Commonwealth's attorney, John G. Tilton, incumbent; city sergeant, John P. Lawler, incumbent; House of Delegates: W. S. Benson, incumbent. Candidates of the Citizens' party are: clerk of the Corporation Court, Richard W. Peatross, commissioner of the revenue, W. Frank Robertson; city treasurer, P. C. Stanworth; city collector, J. Bunyan Jones; Commonwealth's attorney, O. L. Shackelford; city sergeant, C. L. Hudgins; House of Delegates: S. A. Woodward and W. P. Cousins.

In addition to the above ticket, other candidates in the field are: city sergeant, M. T. Simmons, labor indorsement; for Commonwealth's attorney, Harry E. McCoy, independent; for House of Delegates, C. H. Perry, labor indorsement.

Laurence Waring, candidate for reelection as clerk of the City Circuit Court, is unopposed.

NEW COURT HOUSE CORNER-STONE LAID

Representative A. J. Montague Is Orator of Day at Tazewell.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Tazewell, Va., October 18.—The corner-stone for Tazewell's new courthouse was laid here to-day by the Tazewell Lodge of Masons, assisted by the members of the various lodges of the county. The ceremonies took place on a platform erected in front of the courthouse, beginning at 11:30 o'clock this morning.

Besides the officers of the Tazewell Lodge, the members of the building committee, Judge of the Circuit Court, Board of Supervisors, and the orator of the day, Representative A. J. Montague occupied the platform during the proceedings.

The ceremonies were attended by several hundred of the town people and people from the county. After the laying of the corner-stone the members of the lodge and visitors marched to the high school chapel, where Mr. Montague delivered the address of the day, being introduced by Fulton Keyser, judge of the Circuit Court. Judge Keyser's speech of introduction and the representative's address were of a high order.

Following Mr. Montague's address a number of citizens went to the home of Judge S. C. Graham, being especially invited to lunch with the distinguished guest. The guests were royally entertained.

Those present represented the various callings and professions of the county as follows: Representative A. J. Montague, guest of honor; J. N. Gorman, mayor of the town; and Mason's committeeman on arrangements; J. S. Bottimore, Mason and committeeman; B. W. Stras, president Board of Trustees; H. A. Haworth, Mason and committeeman; F. J. Stras, Mason and manager of courthouse construction; W. B. Leslie, of the Clinch Valley News; D. B. Daniel, chairman Board of Supervisors; Fulton Keyser, judge of Circuit Court, and J. E. Baylor, visiting Mason.

The courthouse, which is nearing completion, is a handsome pressed brick structure and will be one of the most modernly-equipped and conveniently-arranged public buildings in Southwest Virginia. It is a fitting climax to the good roads and other progressive movements in the county.

FAIR MAKES $1,500 PROFIT.

May Be Devoted to Improvements of Public Nature. Alexandria, Va., October 18.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Fairfax Fair Association, held recently a report was presented showing that the fair had been a big success, despite the rainy weather which prevailed during the three days it was open. A surplus of $1,500 remained after all expenses had been paid, and a committee was appointed from each district in the county to decide what should be done with the money. It probably will be devoted to improvements of a public nature.

Announcement was made that Mr. Walton Moore had offered the sum of $300 to be devoted to an exhibit of the public school work of Fairfax County at next year's fair.

Pool-Hutchinson. Fairfax, Va., October 18.—The Tavern at Fairfax Courthouse was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon when Miss M. A. Hutchinson became the bride of J. S. Pool, of Skyville, Md. The Rev. Mr. Herst, of Vienna, officiated.

News of Petersburg

The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 5 Bollingbrook Street, (Phone 1485), Petersburg, Va., October 18.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of the Virginia conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will meet in conference in the Washington Street Church, in this city, on November 4-7. The attendance will be large, with delegates from every conference district. This meeting is preparatory to making up the mission report, to be presented to the Virginia Conference.

High Prices for Tobacco.

During the three days' premium bright tobacco sales in this city this week, 193,825 pounds of the golden leaf were sold, at the high average of $19 per hundred pounds. Many of the planters averaged $20, $25 and $30 per hundred pounds for offerings, and one averaged $37. Individual lots range in prices from $10 up to $60. The planters were mightily pleased with the high prices paid them. The total sales of bright tobacco for the new season to date aggregate 291,884 pounds. The

Hair Grew 4 Inches In A Few Weeks

A St. Louis Lady Increased the Length of Her Hair Four or Five Inches in a Few Weeks With This Simple Home Recipe.

A well-known St. Louis lady, after using a simple recipe on her hair which she mixed at home, made the following statement: "Without exaggeration, my hair has grown four or five inches." The recipe she used is as follows, and any lady or gentleman can mix it at home: To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Apply to the scalp two or three times a week with the tips of the fingers. It not only promotes the growth of the hair, but removes dandruff, scalp humors and prevents the hair from falling out.

It darkens streaked, faded, gray hair and makes it soft and glossy. These ingredients can be obtained from any drug store at very little cost and mixed at home.

week's sales of dark tobacco aggregated 27,396 pounds, and the total number of piles of the bright and dark grades sold exceeded 3,500. One thing has been definitely settled by this week's sales, and that is that Petersburg has beyond all doubt been firmly established as a market for bright tobacco—something new in its history. Large quantities are yet to come in, and the sales next season are expected to reach up into many million pounds. Buyers for other markets here this week say that the Petersburg prices were much higher than elsewhere.

Meeting of Aldermen.

After several failures because of a lack of a quorum to hold a meeting this week in regular course, the Board of Aldermen secured a quorum of members last night and transacted its business. The most important of this was the approval of bills from the various departments, which had been ordered paid by the lower branch. The board also approved a bill of $250, covering the expenses of the three delegates from the city to the recent convention of the American Good Roads Congress, held in Detroit. Nothing outside of routine business was considered by the board.

Death of Mrs. Bristow.

Mrs. Vivian Bristow, aged seventy-five years, widow of C. W. Bristow, died last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Wray, on Byrne Street. She is survived by six children—three sons and three daughters—as follows: R. V. T. L. Bristow, and Mrs. C. J. Cabaniss and Mrs. J. W. Wray, of Petersburg; W. T. Bristow and Mrs. W. L. Mansfield, of Norfolk.

Death of Aged Woman.

Mrs. Ann Gould, widow of Josiah Gould, of Chesterfield County, died this morning at her residence on Colonial Heights in this city, in the eightieth year of her age.

Death of Miss Spain.

Miss Laura Vivian Spain, aged fourteen years, died this morning at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Spain, on High Street. The funeral will take place Monday afternoon, and the burial will be in Chesterfield County.

General News Notes.

So great was the rush at the three days' premium bright tobacco sales this week, that it will be found impossible to announce the many premiums before next Monday or Tuesday.

Little or nothing is being heard of the independent political movement in Dinwiddie County. It is believed that it will amount to nothing, and that Judge John Y. Harris, the Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates, will have a easy walk-over.

Two additional elders and four deacons will be elected by the congregation of the Second Presbyterian Church at to-morrow morning's service. Donald M. Dunlop, a native and for a great many years a well-known resident of Petersburg, died yesterday at his home in Baltimore. The body will be brought to the city to-morrow afternoon. Mr. Dunlop was a Confederate veteran and member of A. P. Hill Camp.
